

The Interview – It's Show Time!

- You've done your homework, you will be fine!
- Send a thank you email the day of the interview.
- If you are interested, tell them.
- If you are not interested, keep that to yourself for the time being and see if they come back to you. They might very well be a handy contact in the future and if you reject them, they may not like it.
- Stay in contact. Send an email to the recruiter AND /OR the person you interviewed with asking what the timing is for making a decision. It's not rude, this is how business works and is expected of you.
- Never get disheartened! You may be sitting at home with nothing to do but the person who interviewed you might be snowed under doing their job AND the person they are trying to replace. SO BE PATIENT.
