

What to wear, when to arrive & what to bring

- Simple rule, dress for one position above the one you are applying for.
- Clean your shoes, get a haircut and clean your nails.
- You should be good to touch (clean), good to smell (not too strong) and good to listen too (language).
- If you are applying to be the Salesperson, dress like a Sales Manager
- Bring a Pad, a pen, your questions and three copies of your resume.
- Get there 20 minutes early so you comfortable stroll in five minutes before the scheduled time looking cool, calm and collected not rushed, sweating, and nervous.
- Take deep breathes and calm the farm. You've done the homework and are bringing your A game!
